Do you have workers or customers who need to perform specific job tasks, error free and efficiently? Perhaps to use a computer application in performing their job tasks? Or, to use a piece of hardware precisely?

Then, you know each worker (or customer) needs to be trained thoroughly, efficiently, and effectively. Easier said, than done, until now.....

Brain Cable, Inc. will partner up with you to create and deliver the training you need, providing the best solution to your problem that you can find anywhere.

If you have anywhere from 50 to 1,000,000 workers or customers to train, then BRAIN CABLE is your best possible partner.

Let Brain Cable prove it to you.

Brain Cable’s Custom Process Training utilizes a “Virtual Tutor” technology to deliver the training via your computer connected to a network such as the Internet.

Brain Cable utilizes a multi-million dollar state-of-the-art development and delivery system to:

1. Train your workers (or customers) one-on-one in a "hands-on" simulated environment.
2. Your workers will learn "by doing," at their own pace, and with repetition as required, enjoyably, efficiently, and effectively.
3. Brain Cable then tests the workers to be sure they can perform their job tasks error free and efficiently.
4. The workers can be refreshed with booster training whenever needed.
5. This training is available to each individual worker anytime, anywhere via the Internet and may be received in small chunks.
